

imagine...
BREC

BREC PRESENTS THE PHILHARMONIC SOUTH WEST'S

FAMILY PROMS

PLANES, TRAINS & AUTOMOBILES

SPEED READ ....

Whether a budding Mozart or musically clueless, the Family Proms is the perfect way to immerse your family into the magic of classical music and experience the Philharmonic South West live in concert!

A pillar of the BREC program, this year's recital is driven by the theme of Planes, Trains and Automobiles. The repertoire is a fast - paced journey through the ages, expressed through a variety of transport vehicles. Imagine yourself transported through time, riding a horse and buggy or blasting through space on a rocket ship!

This is a fun-filled afternoon of magical music from classical masterpieces to some well-known favourites that will capture the hearts and minds of children and adults alike.

The Philharmonic South West is a community orchestra based in Bunbury with musicians throughout the region coming together to share their love of music.

The orchestra promotes excellence and innovation in the performance of orchestral music. Its main desire is to enrich the lives of the South West community. Playing in wineries, cathedrals, halls and theatres, the passionate musicians aim to encourage the audience to make music part of their daily life and enjoy the beauty of classical music.

FUN FACTS

1. Originating in the United Kingdom in 1895, the BBC Proms is the world's biggest and longest-running music festival.
2. 'Proms' is short for Promenade concerts, informal and inexpensive concerts where audiences ('Prommers') would stand and listen!
3. Anyone aged 16 years or under can attend our concert for free! A tradition long held in BREC's commitment to bringing the arts to children.

LEARN THE MUSIC

Yellow Submarine The Beatles

The most successful Beatles song sung by drummer Ringo Starr.

Sleigh Ride Leroy Anderson

A light orchestra standard that came to life during a 1946 heatwave.

Star Trek Jerry Goldsmith

A composition created for the Star Trek film franchise by Oscar winning composer.

